Maybe we were flowering soaking up every ray of sun and each closer to one another maybe we were somebody flying high upon a wind and every night in the trees telling you to sleep whatever the truth you things for sure we got a timeless place for you in my heart how I could love you this much I don't know But there's this endless feeling that tells me more and more I must have loved you before Maybe I was the ocean and you were the sandy beach and every minute Maybe we were flowering soaking up every ray of sun to grow one inch closer to one another maybe we were somebody flying high upon a wind and every night in the trees telling you to sleep whatever the truth is one thing for sure we got a timeless place for you in my heart how I could love you this much I don't know But there's this endless feeling that tells me more and more I must have loved you before Maybe you were the moon rocks and I was just the dark living in your sweet light thanking God to see where you are they say love is eternal well I guess they must be right Cause we got a timeless place for you in my heart how I could love you this much I don't know there's this endless feeling that tells me more and more I must have loved you before Whenever you kiss me it feels like coming home we got a timeless place for you in my heart how I could love you this much baby I don't know But there's this endless feeling that tells me more and more I must have loved you before there's this endless feeling that tells me more and more I must have loved you before
